Jim McClowry presentation. We will be working as a team and moving around alot. It will be lots of fun!

The credibility of Athletic Directors and Coaches is challenged every day. Education-based athletics depends on intentional planning, finding life balance and investing in best practices to impact student-athletes. Jim is a forward-thinking solution oriented leader with a progressive track record in developing athletic department strategic planning. A dynamic facilitator of professional development workshops for coaches, teachers and administrators with a knack for transformational leadership and inspiring a growth mindset for those professionals in the education based athletic arena.

Respected leader with the ability to help school districts become better than before. Growth catalyst, champion of out of the box ideas for high school athletic directors and coaches. National Leadership Training Instructor, consultant, public speaker, Founder and CEO of Credible Coach, LLC.

Jim McClowry is a Certified Master Athletic Administrator serving as an educator for over 27 years. Besides coaching at the college and high school levels, he has been a teacher and high school athletics administrator in four different Wisconsin school districts. He has served the Wisconsin Athletic Directors Association as President, and currently serves on the NIAAA Certification Committee. He has twice been selected as Wisconsin Athletic Director of the Year and Wisconsin's most recent NFHS Award of Merit winner.

Additionally, Jim is a lead instructor for the NFHS Leadership Training Institute both in Wisconsin and at the national level where he facilitates legal issues courses 504, 506 & 508.

His passion lies in working with athletic directors and coaches to create better life-balance, work more efficiently and create a lasting foundation for educationally based athletics.

Jim has taken his Credible Coach workshops to over 60 Wisconsin high schools. The aim of these workshops is to impact a school's entire coaching staff by challenging their status quo, creating program mission statements, championing a growth mindset, building credibility and developing a coaching network.

Jim has provided consulting services to multiple high schools. His focused approach has helped school districts develop strategic planning that has intentionally changed the course of educational based athletic programs throughout Wisconsin.

Jim has been married to his wife, Tracy, for 27 years. He is also the father of Marin, Colin, Payton and Gavin. The McClowrys live in Wisconsin's Fox Valley area.
